Complete Market Reports Corrected Each Day Giving the Wholesale Prices of Commodities, Farm Produce and Vegetables.

Portland, Nov. 8.—Oregon onions have advanced as a result of a sudden demand from California, and prices are considered firm. The onion crop of the state has been saved in good condition, although there were reports early in October of heavy damage inflicted by showers and frosts.

Dealers are in the onion growing districts, buying for export, and report growers as a rule willing to sell at quotations. The stock of summer onions grown in California is about exhausted, as they do not possess the keeping qualities of the Oregon fall product. Poultry is in light supply, and commission men are glad of it, as the demand has not been great thus far this week. Coops of mixed chickens sell with difficulty at 10c, and, as Wednesday and Thursday are usually the best selling days, dealers do not hope for better trade toward Saturday. The poultry market, which has been dull since the closing of the fair, is not expected to revive until the week before Thanksgiving, when the high price of turkeys may stimulate the price of chickens. Dealers advise poultrymen to ship lightly at this time.

A shipment of Concord grapes arrived from Forest Grove this morning.
